

Dedicated To My Wife

A family tree, steadfast and wide,
Its branches reaching far and high.
Each leaf a story, each twig a tie,
Yet one fell silent when you said goodbye.

Your laughter danced like the morning breeze,
Now stilled among the solemn trees.
A limb once strong, now breaks away,
Yet roots remember every day.

Your love remains, in bark and vein,
A whispered echo through the rain.
Though absence aches, the tree will grow,
For in its heart, your light still glows.

In the story of our families, we are reminded that the richest inheritance we share is not in wealth, but in love. Our true strength lies not in titles or possessions, but in the unspoken connections that bind us. Let us carry forward a legacy built on kindness, respect, and a love that knows no bounds. As we continue to grow, may we always remember that the most valuable measure of who we are is the way we treat one another—with compassion, care, and unwavering support. This is the foundation of our families' future: a love that endures beyond all things.

1. INTRODUCTION

STATISTICS

This document reports the details of 270 individuals, of which 140 are male and 130 are female. Of the 123 individuals with recorded birth and death dates, the average lifespan was 69.7 years. Of these, 58 males averaged 70.2 years, and 65 females averaged 69.3 years.

The longest living male was John Derek Wood<sup>95</sup>, who died aged 93. The longest living female was Peggy (Margaret) Huntington<sup>243</sup>, who died aged 93.

Mary Atkinson Roorcroft<sup>80</sup> has reached the age of 96 and is still living, making her the longest living person recorded in this document.

There are 120 families reported. 86 of these families are reported as having children, with an average of 2 children per family.

THE NARRATIVE SECTIONS

The "Direct Relations" section reports the details of individuals who have a direct family connection to Andrew John Jameson<sup>40</sup>. The section is broken into sub-sections for each generation, within which the individuals are listed in order of closeness of relationship. The sequence numbers are used throughout the document to cross-reference back to the detailed entry of an individual.

With a narrative section, each generation is shown as a separate subsection, within which the individuals are listed in order of the closeness of their relationship to Andrew John Jameson<sup>40</sup>.

FAMILY TREES SECTION

Each family tree shows the reported children, parents, grandparents and great-grandparents of a family group. In order to reduce redundancy, any family group which is wholly included within another family tree may not be reported separately.

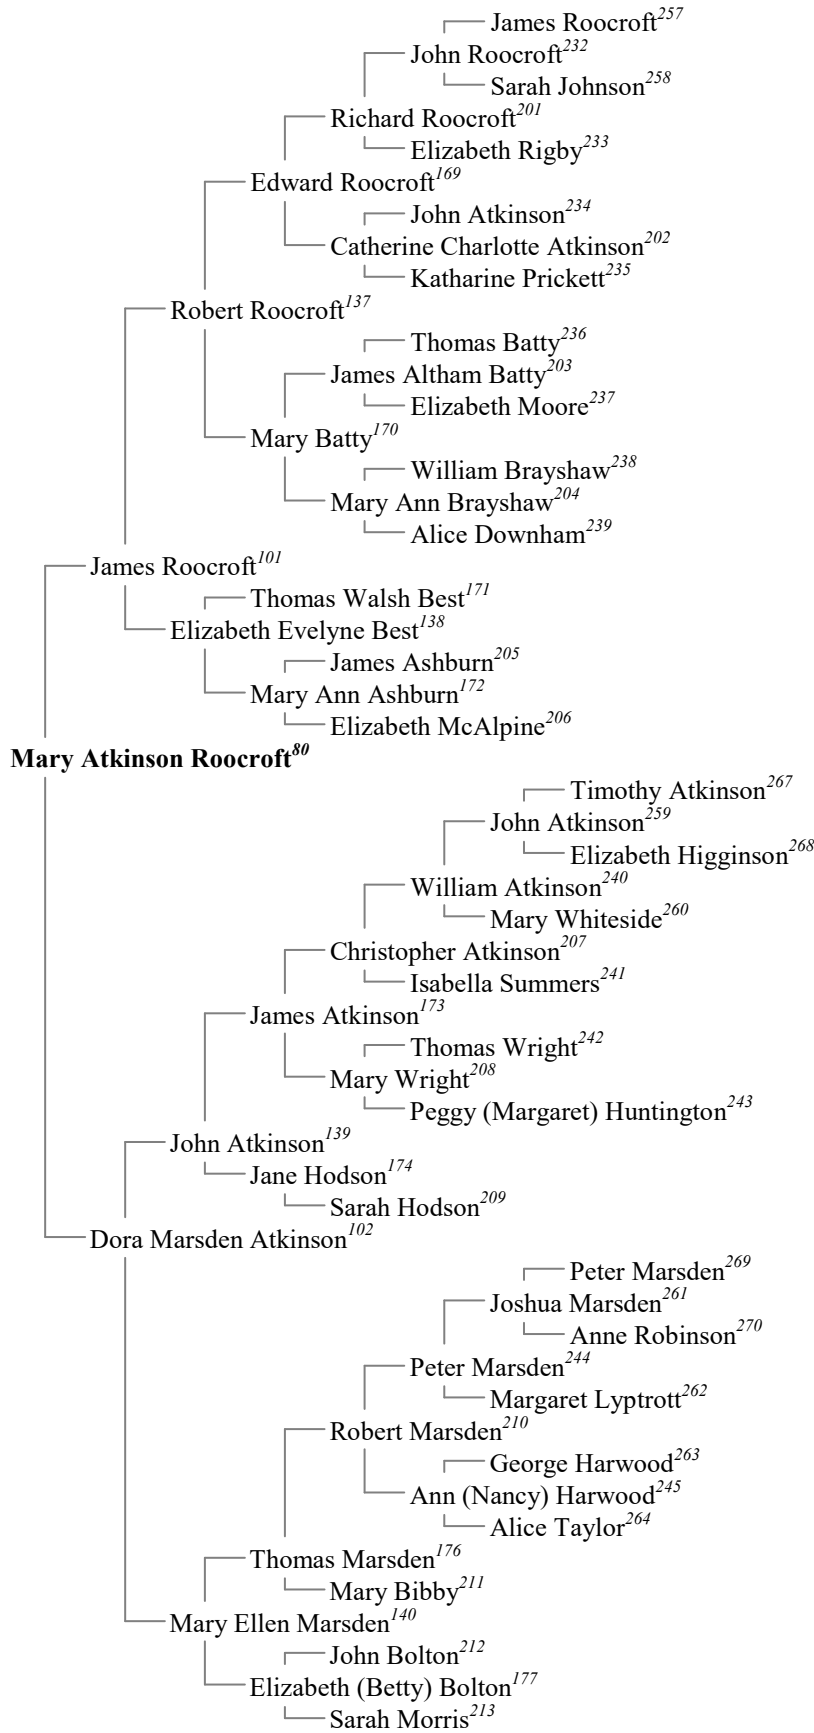

Above each of the great-grandparent boxes (top row), a continuation family tree reference number is shown if the great-grandparent is recorded as a child in the continuation tree. A continuation reference number is also shown to the left of a grandparent or parent box if that individual has siblings reported in the continuation tree; and beneath a child box (bottom row) if that individual has children reported in the continuation tree.

In cases of multiple marriages, a continuation reference number preceded by "=" is shown to the right of a parent box. This number references the previous and/or next tree in which that individual is shown with another partner.

1. INTRODUCTION

STATISTICS

This document reports the details of 13 individuals, of which 8 are male and 5 are female. Of the 3 individuals with recorded birth and death dates, the average lifespan was 79 years. Of these, 2 males averaged 73.5 years, and 1 females averaged 90 years.

The longest living male was Ernest Whitehurst<sup>12</sup>, who died aged 77. The longest living female was Grace Cooper<sup>13</sup>, who died aged 90.

There are 7 families reported. 6 of these families are reported as having children, with an average of 1.5 children per family.

THE NARRATIVE SECTIONS

The "Direct Relations" section reports the details of individuals who have a direct family connection to Judith Anne Whitehurst<sup>3</sup>. The section is broken into sub-sections for each generation, within which the individuals are listed in order of closeness of relationship. The sequence numbers are used throughout the document to cross-reference back to the detailed entry of an individual.

With a narrative section, each generation is shown as a separate subsection, within which the individuals are listed in order of the closeness of their relationship to Judith Anne Whitehurst<sup>3</sup>.

FAMILY TREES SECTION

Each family tree shows the reported children, parents, grandparents and great-grandparents of a family group. In order to reduce redundancy, any family group which is wholly included within another family tree may not be reported separately.

Above each of the great-grandparent boxes (top row), a continuation family tree reference number is shown if the great-grandparent is recorded as a child in the continuation tree. A continuation reference number is also shown to the left of a grandparent or parent box if that individual has siblings reported in the continuation tree; and beneath a child box (bottom row) if that individual has children reported in the continuation tree.

In cases of multiple marriages, a continuation reference number preceded by "=" is shown to the right of a parent box. This number references the previous and/or next tree in which that individual is shown with another partner.

For Jane – A Light That Still Shines

She walked among us, bright and true,
A guiding light, a golden hue.
With laughter soft and kindness deep,
She sowed a love that still will keep.

Though time was brief, her touch was vast,
Her echoes woven through the past.
A beacon strong, she lit the way,
And in our hearts, she'll always stay.

The roots she traced, the tales she found,
Are living echoes all around.
A legacy of love and grace,
That time nor distance can erase.

So here within these pages bright,
Her family's past comes into sight.
But know, though stories fade and part,
She lives within each beating heart.

For love outlives the fleeting years,
And hope still gleams through loss and tears.
So turn the page and find her near—
Her light still shines; she's always here.

1. INTRODUCTION

STATISTICS

This document reports the details of 170 individuals, of which 88 are male and 82 are female. Of the 77 individuals with recorded birth and death dates, the average lifespan was 63.7 years. Of these, 45 males averaged 56.1 years, and 32 females averaged 74.3 years.

The longest living male was David De Hulton<sup>164</sup>, who died aged 91. The longest living female was Margaret (Meg) Hulton<sup>77</sup>, who died aged 99.

There are 80 families reported. 61 of these families are reported as having children, with an average of 1.6 children per family.

THE NARRATIVE SECTIONS

The "Direct Relations" section reports the details of individuals who have a direct family connection to Jane Elizabeth Woods<sup>26</sup>. The section is broken into sub-sections for each generation, within which the individuals are listed in order of closeness of relationship. The sequence numbers are used throughout the document to cross-reference back to the detailed entry of an individual.

With a narrative section, each generation is shown as a separate subsection, within which the individuals are listed in order of the closeness of their relationship to Jane Elizabeth Woods<sup>26</sup>.

FAMILY TREES SECTION

Each family tree shows the reported children, parents, grandparents and great-grandparents of a family group. In order to reduce redundancy, any family group which is wholly included within another family tree may not be reported separately.

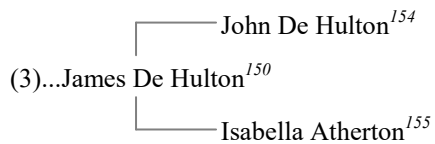

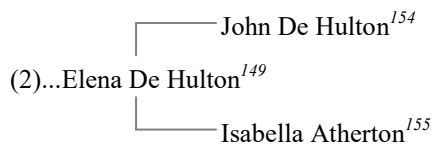

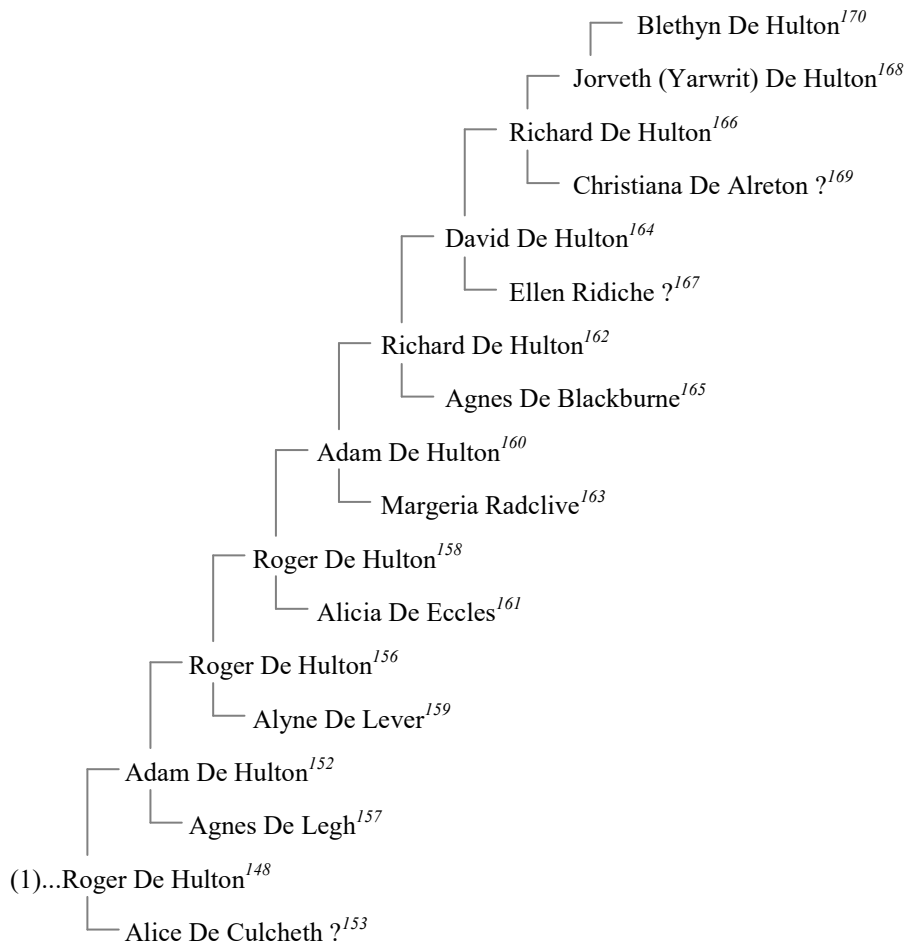

Above each of the great-grandparent boxes (top row), a continuation family tree reference number is shown if the great-grandparent is recorded as a child in the continuation tree. A continuation reference number is also shown to the left of a grandparent or parent box if that individual has siblings reported in the continuation tree; and beneath a child box (bottom row) if that individual has children reported in the continuation tree.

In cases of multiple marriages, a continuation reference number preceded by "=" is shown to the right of a parent box. This number references the previous and/or next tree in which that individual is shown with another partner.

3. MATERNAL ANCESTRY

Jane Elizabeth Woods<sup>26</sup>+Martin Craig Watts<sup>27</sup>└─ Rachel Jane Watts<sup>2</sup>

This family possesses the most unerring proof of antiquity in the title-deeds of their estate of Hulton, from which the Hultons derive their surname, and of which they have been uninterrupted lords since the Conquest. The first feudal proprietor on record,

BLEYTHIN DE HULTON, living temp. HENRY II. was father of

JORVETH, alias YARWIT DE HULTON, who flourished in the reigns of RICHARD I. and JOHN, and obtained from the latter a grant by charter of the town of Penelton, in Lancashire, in exchange for other lands which the king, when Earl of Morton, had given him. He had, with other issue, a son,

RICHARD DE HULTON, who had a grant of lands in Barton, from Edith de Barton, by consent of Gilbert de Notton, her husband, which lands Jorveth de Hulton, father of Richard, had some time held of her. To his son and successor,

DAVID DE HULTON, Lord of Hulton, his cousin, Robert de Hulton, granted all his lands in Hulton, and William de Ferrers gave all his possessions in Flixton, together with his manor of Hordeshale, by homage and service of two marks of silver four times a year, and by the sixth part of a knight's fee, A. D. 1219. David de Hulton wedded Agnes, daughter of Adam de Blackburne, and was father of several sons,* of whom the eldest,

Lineage.

RICHARD DE HULTON, of Hulton, living temp. EDWARD I. had a charter of a free warren in his demesne lands of Hulton, Ordshall, Flixton, and Heaton, in the 32nd of that reign. He m. Margery, daughter of Robert de Radclive, of Radclive Tower, and had issue,

I. RICHARD, his heir.

II. John, of Halliwell, living 35 EDWARD III.

III. ADAM, successor to his nephew.

IV. Roger, who held lands in Manchester, and d. prior to the 14th of EDWARD III.

The eldest son,

RICHARD DE HULTON, of Hulton Park, had a grant of lands in Halghton, from the abbot and convent of Cockersand, dated 16th June, 5th EDWARD II. This Richard left a son and successor,

RICHARD DE HULTON, of Hulton Park, who d. s. p. and was s. in his estates (of which he had made a settlement, 7th EDWARD III.) by his uncle,

ADAM DE HULTON, of Hulton Park, living temp. EDWARD III. who m. Alicia de Eccles, and had, with several younger sons, his successor,

ROGER DE HULTON, of Hulton Park, who

* From John de Hulton, the youngest son, descended the Hultons of Farnsworth.

Generation of Twenty-seven-Times-Great-Grandparents

170. BLETHYN DE HULTON (Jane's twenty-seven-times-great-grandfather<sup>169</sup>, see Maternal Ancestry(1)) was born in 1110. He died in 1162, aged about 52.
 The following information is also recorded for Blethyn. Story (This family is of Welsh origin; the first Lancashire members of it—Iorwerth (d. 1215) and Madoc, sons of Bleiddyn—are supposed to have been among the faithful vassals of Robert Banastre, expelled from Wales about 1167) in 1160, aged about 50.
 Blethyn fathered one son:
 Jorveth (Yarwrit) De Hulton<sup>168</sup> in 1145

Hoshika, Our Family Star

Amid our branches, strong and wide,
A little fox-like soul resides.
With pricked-up ears and knowing eyes,
She wags her tail, our hearts she ties.

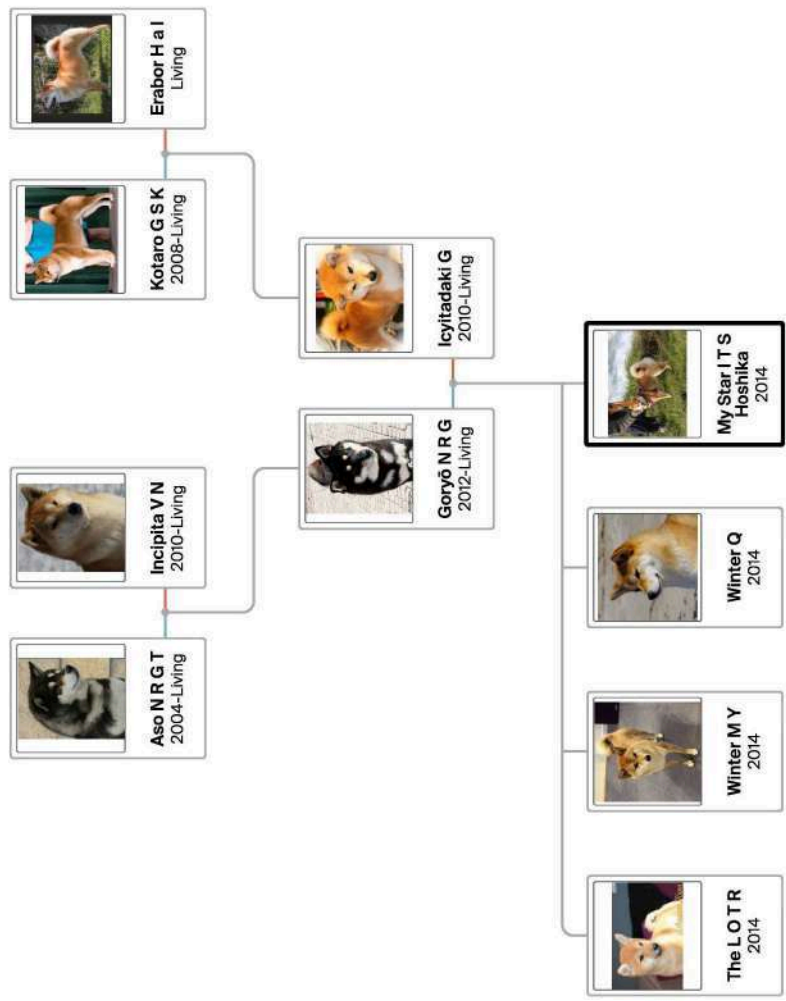

Through every laugh, through every year,
Her gentle paws have trotted near.
A guardian bright, so bold, so true—
Hoshika, we are home with you.

1. INTRODUCTION

STATISTICS

This document reports the details of 10 individuals, of which 4 are male and 6 are female.

There are 3 families reported. 3 of these families are reported as having children, with an average of 2 children per family.

THE NARRATIVE SECTIONS

The "Direct Relations" section reports the details of individuals who have a direct family connection to My Star In The Sky Hoshika<sup>1</sup>. The section is broken into sub-sections for each generation, within which the individuals are listed in order of closeness of relationship. The sequence numbers are used throughout the document to cross-reference back to the detailed entry of an individual.

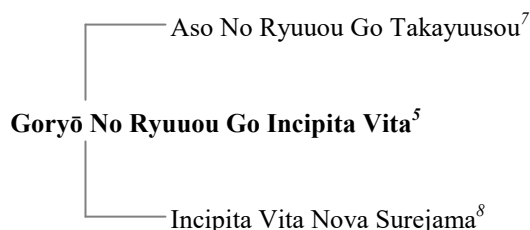

With a narrative section, each generation is shown as a separate subsection, within which the individuals are listed in order of the closeness of their relationship to My Star In The Sky Hoshika<sup>1</sup>.

FAMILY TREES SECTION

Each family tree shows the reported children, parents, grandparents and great-grandparents of a family group. In order to reduce redundancy, any family group which is wholly included within another family tree may not be reported separately.

Above each of the great-grandparent boxes (top row), a continuation family tree reference number is shown if the great-grandparent is recorded as a child in the continuation tree. A continuation reference number is also shown to the left of a grandparent or parent box if that individual has siblings reported in the continuation tree; and beneath a child box (bottom row) if that individual has children reported in the continuation tree.
